

Minority Caucus Lobby Days – March 20–21, 2012

Sign Up Now!

“The 2012 Minority Caucus Lobby Day may be the most important Washington event for AAJ this year!”

Your Clients’ Voices Must Be Heard! After the 2010 elections, the leadership in U.S. House of Representatives changed in a dramatic fashion. The new House Leadership has waged an almost non-stop battle against the civil justice system. With your help and support, AAJ has managed to fend off those attacks so far. We need your voices to help us as the fight continues.

Who better to persuade legislators than a group of dynamic and diverse trial lawyers, in force! We need your help showing Congress that the civil justice affects everyone! Minority Caucus Lobby Days is an amazingly effective way to communicate with elected officials while networking with other minority trial lawyers from across the country.

No Lobbying Experience Necessary! AAJ will provide a comprehensive briefing on legislative issues on March 20, followed by a reception with key legislators. The next morning, we hit the Hill in teams to lobby U.S. Senators and Representatives. You’ll leave Washington with a real sense of accomplishment, knowing you have helped make a difference for your clients and the future of your practice.
