ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Head to AAJ's Litigating Toxic Tort, Pharmaceutical, and Medical Device Cases Seminar in Las Vegas to get the latest information on how to hold the pharmaceutical industry accountable. At this acclaimed seminar, you'll gain insight from experienced trial attorneys who've handled cases against pharmaceutical companies nationwide, including the latest updates on today's hot topics in toxic tort and pharmaceutical litigation.

Get inside information on the innovative trial techniques, strategies, and practices that leading attorneys have used to take on pharmaceutical industry giants. Learn how to invest the necessary resources to go up against pharmaceutical companies, and discover how to meet other unique challenges of litigating these types of cases.

Who Should Attend

The program is designed for any plaintiff attorney—including those who have been practicing for several years—looking for guidance and innovation in their approach to litigating pharmaceutical cases.

Open Only to AAJ Plaintiff Attorneys

Your Registration Includes

- 11.25 hours of cutting-edge continuing legal education and NCA credits, including one hour of ethics, which can be applied toward AAJ's professional recognition programs
- "Meet the Faculty" networking reception
- Complimentary daily continental breakfasts and coffee
- Comprehensive reference materials

AAJ RESOURCES

The Section on Toxic, Environmental, and Pharmaceutical Torts (STEP) focuses on the toxic effects of pharmaceuticals, pesticides and herbicides, medical devices, consumer products, industrial pollution, and other environmental poisons. STEP exchanges information on a range of subjects including Daubert challenges, federal preemption, practice nuts-and-bolts, and the use/abuse of class actions. For more information and to join, visit www.justice.org/sections.

The AAJ Exchange contains thousands of resources contributed by your colleagues, and contact information for members handling similar cases. Databases include depositions, court documents, case abstracts, similar matters, CLE materials, experts, Law Reporter document sets, Law Reporter injury collections, and Law Reporter abstract sets. For more information, visit www.justice.org/exchange.

Litigation Packets contain documents provided by AAJ plaintiff attorney members to help you prepare for your cases. Over 125 topics are available, and the materials are delivered on CD-ROM. For a complete listing of AAJ's litigation packets, visit www.justice.org/exchange.
