Why should you exhibit at AAJ Education Seminars in 2008–09?

WHAT ARE AAJ EDUCATION SEMINARS?

AAJ Education Seminars are one-, two-, or three-day in-person continuing legal education (CLE) programs geared toward specific practice areas and new developments in the law. The most practical, current, and valuable information is offered with faculty comprised of trial lawyers and experts, including medical and other professionals with experience in the subject matter.

AAJ Education Seminars offer exhibiting, sponsorship, and other marketing opportunities.

WHAT ARE AAJ TRIAL SKILLS COLLEGES?

AAJ Trial Skills Colleges are three- to five-day programs that combine lectures, demonstrations, and workshops where lawyers practice their skills with intensive feedback from nationally known trial lawyers and trial consultants. Attendees leave the programs more confident, powerful, and persuasive.

AAJ Trial Skills Colleges offer sponsorship and other marketing opportunities.

WHO ATTENDS AAJ EDUCATION SEMINARS AND TRIAL SKILLS COLLEGES?

More than 1,700 attorney members attended an AAJ Education Seminar or Trial Skills College over the past 12 months. Attendees of Seminars and Colleges have varying degrees of experience and come from law firms of different sizes.

YEARS IN PRACTICE		SIZE OF FIRM
12%	1–5 Years	53%	1–4 Attorneys
12%	6–10	21%	5–7
14%	11–15	10%	8–10
15%	16–20	16%	11+
47%	20+

- Meet prospects face-to-face, in an inviting environment with a targeted audience for your products and services
- Establish a nationwide network of AAJ members—key decision makers in their firms
- Engage the audience in demonstrations and new product introductions
- Receive exhibitor priority points to obtain prime booth locations at the AAJ Annual and Winter Conventions

Your exhibit fee includes one six-foot draped table, two chairs, name badges for all attending staff, admission to receptions, and seminar attendee lists.

Litigating Nursing Home Cases Seminar

October 3–4, 2008

Omni Austin Hotel, Austin, TX

Anticipated Attendance: 125 Exhibit Fee: $500

AAJ's Litigating Nursing Home Cases Seminar brings together experienced plaintiff trial lawyers and experts to share their insights and information on topics vital to achieve a full recovery of damages for those who have been harmed by the negligence of the nursing home industry. This two-day seminar teaches attendees how to use regulations to win cases, trial techniques specific to nursing home cases, and more. The latest news and legal developments, along with tools and strategies to hold the industry accountable will be presented.

Suggested exhibitors: Health Care Consultants, Litigation Funding, Medical Expert Witnesses, Medical-Legal Companies, Structured Settlements

Rules of the Road Seminar

October 24–25, 2008

Mirage Las Vegas, Las Vegas, NV

Anticipated Attendance: 125 Exhibit Fee: $500

This seminar, based on the book Rules of the Road: A Plaintiff Lawyer's Guide to Proving Liability by AAJ members Rick Friedman and Patrick Malone, allows attendees to learn from trial lawyers who have applied the teachings in Rules of the Road as they share their secrets of trying complex cases to a jury—from the pleading through discovery and trial. This program will arm plaintiff lawyers with proven techniques to overcome the complexity, confusion and ambiguity that are the hallmark weapons of most defense strategies. David Ball, Ph.D., noted trial consultant and author of David Ball on Damages: A Plaintiff's Attorney's Guide for Personal Injury and Wrongful Death Cases, and David Ball on Damages: The Essential Update, will facilitate the discussion and provide commentary and analysis.

Suggested exhibitors: Accident Reconstruction, Animation, Litigation Funding, Structured Settlements

Litigating Truck Collision Cases Seminar

February 20–21, 2009

Caesars Palace, Las Vegas, NV

Anticipated Attendance: 100 Exhibit Fee: $500

Handling a truck collision claim is different from an auto claim. This program will focus on accident reconstruction, electronic data, and federal regulations, among other topics.

Suggested exhibitors: Accident Reconstruction, Animation, Litigation Funding, Structured Settlements, Trucking Experts

Damages Seminar

February 27–28, 2009

Westin Memphis Beale Street, Memphis, TN

Anticipated Attendance: 100 Exhibit Fee: $500

Attendees at this seminar will learn how to translate a case of injury into a case for damages. David Ball, Ph.D., noted trial consultant and author, will lead the program, which will provide attendees with insight and understanding about how jurors view damages. They will learn techniques and skills to effectively articulate, in every phase of the trial, the reasons for a just award.

Suggested exhibitors: Demonstrative Evidence, Jury Consultants, Litigation Funding, Structured Settlements

Psychology of Persuasion

March 13-14, 2009

Ritz-Carlton Buckhead, Atlanta, GA

Anticipated Attendance: 100 Exhibit Fee: $500

This seminar will provide plaintiff attorneys with the information they need to know to win their clients' cases in today's environment. Attendees will learn secrets that political operatives, advertisers, and defense attorneys use to shape the beliefs, attitudes, and behaviors of voters, consumers, and jurors.

Suggested exhibitors: Demonstrative Evidence, Expert Witnesses, Jury Consultants, Trial Consultants

Reengineering Your Practice: How to Grow Your Practice and Enhance Client Services

March 20-21, 2009

Location TBD

Anticipated Attendance: 100 Exhibit Fee: $500

This seminar, presented with Atticus, teaches attendees how to respond to changes that will shape the future success of their practices—outside forces such as tort “reform”, competition, marketplace perception and more. The program will help attorneys identify the reasons for reengineering their practices and provide strategies for them to meet their goals.

Suggested exhibitors: Case Management Software, Demonstrative Evidence, Litigation Funding, Structured Settlements, Web site Developers

AAJ ACCEPTANCE POLICY

AAJ reserves the right to reject exhibitors and/or sponsors whose product or service is not in compliance with AAJ advertising policy, i.e., the exhibit materials should not have an emphasis on large jury awards or settlements, or on maximizing damages, or otherwise overemphasize monetary considerations. AAJ will not accept exhibitors or sponsors marketing alcohol, tobacco, or firearms, and has the right to reject materials with sexual connotations in questionable taste. AAJ may also reject exhibitors or sponsors offering products or services in direct competition with AAJ services.

AAJ Education Exhibitor/Sponsor Terms and Conditions:

Full payment must accompany this Contract. Contract is not binding and Exhibit Space will not be assigned until full payment is received. Exhibit fees include the following: one six-foot table and two chairs; name badges for company representatives (no more than two persons manning the display at a time); pre- and post-program attendee lists; an updated program agenda; participation in breaks and receptions. In most cases, the exhibits are in a ballroom that can be locked with no security guard. AAJ is not responsible for the security or storage of materials.

Installation and dismantling of exhibits including arrangements for shipping and handling is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor. Any requests for electricity, equipment, supplies, or other special arrangements must be made directly with the hotel contact and payment for these arrangements is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor.

A tabletop display consists of one six-foot by three-foot table and the space immediately surrounding it. Pop-up displays are also allowed, space permitting. Easels and/or video carts are acceptable only if confined to Exhibitor's space. Promotional activities (i.e. demonstrations) must also be confined to Exhibitor's space and must not interfere with adjacent tables or intrude into aisle space.

All demonstrations, distribution of materials, or other promotional activities must be confined to the limits of Exhibitor's space, and must not interfere with adjacent displays or intrude on aisle space. Exhibitors will limit all distribution of materials to the designated times and location of the Exhibition.

All projection equipment and activities must be in accordance with fire regulations and in compliance with any agreements entered into by the sponsor with the management of the Exhibit Hall. All lighting devices, sound equipment, or displays must be arranged in such a manner as not to disturb other Exhibitors or the Exhibition in general.

Assignments of Exhibit space are made on a first-come, first-served basis determined by when the Exhibit Application and Contract is received, unless otherwise specified by the Exhibits Manager. On-site registration is accepted on a space available basis; however, all pre-paid Exhibitors will receive preference in space assignments.

AAJ reserves the right to make modifications in floor space or room assignments for Exhibition area as deemed necessary, making equitable adjustments with any Exhibitor or Exhibitors thereby affected.

Admittance to the Exhibit area is restricted to program attendees, staff, faculty and Exhibitors.

Although every effort will be made to keep the program on schedule, AAJ cannot be held responsible for modifications to scheduled participant breaks.

Exhibitor acknowledges that the Exhibits Manager is not usually present to handle on-site arrangements. AAJ Education Staff has full authority to evict Exhibitors whose Exhibits are excessively noisy, employ offensive or unprofessional methods of operations, or in any way detract from the quality of the Exhibition, interfere with the other Exhibitors, or are deleterious to AAJ's professional image.

Any Exhibitor wishing to cancel or withdraw from the Exhibition must give the Exhibits Manager written notice 7 days in advance of his or her intention to do so. Exhibitors who cancel at a later date will not receive a refund.

Course materials are available for purchase by Exhibitors for a minimal fee; they are available on-site at the AAJ Registration Desk.

All matters and questions not covered by these policies are subject to the discretion of the Exhibits Manager and the staff of AAJ Education.

Exhibitor agrees to abide by the terms of this Contract and any applicable provisions of AAJ's agreement with the management of the facility. This Contract will not be binding until countersigned by an authorized representative of AAJ. The individual signing below on behalf of the Exhibitor represents and warrants that he/she is authorized to so act in this contracting authority.

A copy of the countersigned agreement will be returned to you upon acceptance. Mail all forms to: AAJ, Exhibits Manager, 777 6th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20001. Telephone: 800-424-2725, ext. 284; Fax: 202-625-7313.
