

Three Simple Steps. Protect Your Practice.

- ◆ Identify a case.
- ◆ Make a pledge on that case.
- ◆ If your case is successful, complete your pledge.

The Evergreen Fund allows AAJ to protect the viability of the civil justice system now and in the future. Evergreen Fund contributions support AAJ in its fight against corporate defendants that continue to spend endless resources to eliminate your practice and the rights of your clients.

IT IS DESIGNED SPECIFICALLY FOR PLAINTIFF TRIAL LAWYERS.

On a yearly basis, you identify cases or litigations that you're working on and pledge to AAJ a percentage or sum certain from a settlement or verdict. If and only if you are successful, you fulfill your pledge.

Every contribution to the Evergreen Fund is recognized in the following ways:

- Recognition by the President and CEO during prestigious AAJ events/meetings
- Personal invitation to the Evergreen Fund Reception at convention
- Recognition at convention and board meetings
- Highly visible convention displays
- Distinguished lapel pin
- Recognition in TRIAL magazine
- Recognition on the AAJ Evergreen web page

AAJ is a not-for-profit 501(c)(6) corporation. Therefore, dues and contributions paid to the American Association for Justice (AAJ) are not deductible as charitable contributions for income tax purposes. However, they may be deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses subject to restrictions imposed as a result of AAJ's lobbying activities. In 2021, AAJ estimates that the portion of dues, fees, and other similar amounts that it expects to receive are allocable to AAJ's lobbying expenditures is 34%. Accordingly, 66% of fees, dues, and contributions to AAJ may be deducted as ordinary and necessary business expenses. Members should consult their tax advisor to confirm their eligible deductions.
