1. I make this Affidavit on personal knowledge as required for Membership in AAJ's Chiropractic Malpractice Litigation Group.
2. I am a Regular, Life, Leaders Forum, President's Club, Life or Sustaining member in good standing of the American Association for Justice (AAJ) and my AAJ Membership number is _____.
3. I am a member in good standing of the bar(s) of _____.
4. I am primarily engaged in the representation of plaintiffs.
5. I do not, nor does any member of my firm, represent a defendant in any action pertaining to Chiropractic in any capacity.
6. I will fully and candidly share all information, documents, and other material with other members of the AAJ Chiropractic Malpractice Litigation Group. I will resist the defense's requests for secrecy orders which prohibit information sharing and restrict access to information needed by benzene victims; however, I will at all times abide by such secrecy orders where they have been ordered by the court.
7. I will fully resist any effort to share, pursuant to a defendant's request for production, information that I have received from the AAJ Chiropractic Malpractice Litigation Group. I understand that the position of the Group is that this information is work product and is not discoverable by defendant's interrogatories or requests for production. However, I will at all times abide by any order of the court requiring production of materials obtained from the AAJ Chiropractic Malpractice Litigation Group.
8. I understand that there will be a $125 annual dues obligation to the Litigation Group which is subject to reasonably necessary increases from time to time.
9. I will admit and agree that in my opinion chiropractic treatment is a cause of stroke, paralysis and many other injuries.
10. By joining this Litigation Group and providing my contact information, including email address, I consent and give permission for AAJ to add me to the corresponding AAJ Litigation Group list server to receive emails from AAJ members and AAJ on the list server.

Membership dues paid to the American Association for Justice (AAJ) are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for income tax purposes. However, dues may be tax deductible as ordinary and necessary business dues and expenses subject to restrictions imposed as a result of AAJ's lobbying activities. AAJ estimates that the portion of dues and other similar amounts that it expects to receive that are allocable to AAJ's lobbying expenditures is 37%. Accordingly, currently 63 percent of your dues and contributions to AAJ may be deducted as ordinary and necessary business expenses. Please consult your tax advisor to confirm.
