TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

Chapter 1: Purpose and Scope of Depositions
Discovery
Depositions
Scope of Deposition Inquiry
Summary

Chapter 2: Deposition Logistics
Sequence of Depositions in Context of Discovery
Location of Depositions
  Location for 30(b)(1) Depositions—Individual Parties
  Location for 30(b)(6) Depositions—Organizations
  Location for a Nonparty Deposition
  Remote Depositions
Length of Depositions
  Length of 30(b)(6) Depositions—Organizations
Method of Recording Depositions
Summary
Chapter 3: Deposition Ethics
Preamble to the Model Rules of Professional Conduct: Zealous Advocacy Must Be Within the Bounds of the Rules
Model Rule of Professional Conduct 3.4: Obstruction Is Prohibited
Model Rule of Professional Conduct 8.4: Abusive and Uncivil Behavior Is Unethical
  Example: Uncivil and Abusive Behavior Toward a Witness
  Example: Threatening Behavior Toward a Witness
Summary

Chapter 4: Proper Objections
Procedural Objections to the Manner of Taking the Deposition
  Oath or Affirmation
  Parties’ Conduct
Objections to Deposition Questions
Objections to Correctable Evidentiary and Foundational Errors
Objections to the Form of the Question
  Are Leading Questions Appropriate?
  Technique: Proper Use of Leading Questions
  Technique: Curing Compound Questions
  Technique: Curing Excessive Narration
How to Object Properly
  Objections Must Be Concise, Nonargumentative, and Nonsuggestive
  How to Object to Correctable Errors of Substance and Form: Two Schools of Jurisprudence
  Approach 1: “Objection to Form” Only
Approach 2: “Objections to Form or Foundation”
Require a Concise Explanation

Summary

Chapter 5: Prohibited Objections
Objections Asserting That the Substance of the Testimony Would Be Inadmissible at Trial

Relevance Objections
Beyond the Scope Objections
Hearsay Objections

Witness Coaching During a Deposition Is Universally Prohibited
Example: Prohibited Witness Coaching—Passing Notes

Speaking Objections
Example: Improper Speaking Objection
“If You Know” Interjections Are Prohibited Speaking Objections
Technique: Make a Record of Speaking Objections

Objecting to Vagueness Is a Prohibited Speaking Objection
Example: Improper Objection to Vagueness

Objecting Due to a Lawyer’s “Lack of Understanding” Is Prohibited
Technique: Preempt Objections to a Witness Not Understanding the Question

Reinterpreting or Rephrasing the Examiner’s Questions Is Prohibited
“Asked and Answered” Interjections Are Improper
Excessive Objections Are Prohibited
Example: “Rambo Litigation”

Summary
Chapter 6: Instructions Not to Answer

Only Three Permissible Reasons for an Instruction Not to Answer

Proper Instruction Not to Answer: Privilege
Example: Improper Claim of Attorney-Client Privilege
Example: Attorney-Client Privilege Third-Party Waiver
Technique: Make a Record of a Dubious Privilege Claim to Assess Later

Proper Instruction Not to Answer: Court-Ordered Limitation
Proper Instruction Not to Answer: Unilateral Suspension of Deposition
Technique: Suspend a Deposition Due to Harassment

Improper Instructions Not to Answer
Example: Calling It Harassment Does Not Make It Harassment
Example: Instruction Not to Answer, Claiming Irrelevance
Example: Instruction Not to Answer, Claiming Repetition
Example: Failure to Instruct a Deponent to Answer
Technique: Make a Record of Instructions Not to Answer

Summary

Chapter 7: 30(b)(6) Scope of Testimony

Limiting the Scope Is Not Allowed
Example: Instructions Not to Answer Due to Scope of 30(b)(6)

Defending a 30(b)(6) Deposition
Technique: Defending 30(b)(6) Depositions

Summary

Chapter 8: Attorney-Client Conferences
Deposition Conduct Is the Same as Trial
Privilege Conferences Always Are Permissible
Example: Privilege Conference

Conferencing During Recesses: Two Schools of Authority

Hall Standard: All Attorney-Client Conferences Prohibited

Stratosphere Standard: Attorney-Client Conferences Permissible During Unrequested Breaks

Variations of Hall and Stratosphere

Changes in Testimony Following an Attorney-Client Conference

Immediately Following the Recess in Stratosphere Jurisdictions

Technique: Build a Record of Discussions During Breaks

Moving to Reopen the Deposition

Existing Jurisprudence: Testimony Changed After an Attorney-Client Conference

Analogous Rule: Errata Sheet Changes

Summary

Chapter 9: Sanctions

Deposition Obstruction Is Sanctionable

Remedies for Deposition Obstruction

“Meet and Confer” Requirement

Motion to Compel

Motion for Admonishment & Order for Deposition Protocol

Payment of Expenses and Attorney Fees

Failure to Comply With a Court Order

A Party’s Failure to Attend Its Own Deposition

Courts Have Broad Discretion to Control Discovery by Imposing Sanctions

Summary
Appendix A: Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 1, 26, 30, 32 & 37

Appendix B: Comparing Relevant Portions of Rules 30 & 32